

Reading: Year 5

“READING IS A PASSPORT
TO COUNTLESS ADVENTURES.”
- MARY POPE OSBORNE

Week beginning 28th September 2020

Reading Lesson Guide

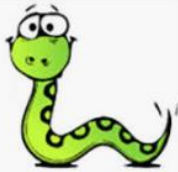

5 min

Every lesson will start with a quick quiz, to see what you can remember.

You will be introduced to a Vocabulary Ninja word of the day. Then you will be introduced to words that are key to understanding the text.

Vocabulary
Infer Predict
Explain
Retrieve
Summarise

These symbols tell you which reading comprehension skill we are working on, today.

This symbol means it is your turn to practise today's skill.

If you have finished the 'your turn' questions, you will be challenged with a deeper question.

Shinobi Word of the Day

Word Class
(adjective)

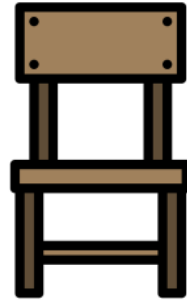

Word of the Day:

vacant
(va-cant)

Pronunciation / Syllables

Definition:

If something is vacant, it is not being used by anyone.

There was a vacant chair at the front of the classroom.

Phrases:

vacant and lonely

vacant for a while

Synonym:

empty

free

Antonym:

full

open

Prefix / Suffix:

-ancy

-cies

Rhyme:

patient

blatant

Link Word:

space

building

New Words

Word:	Refugee camp
Definition:	A designated place set up for refugees to stay

Model Answer

1. Give two reasons why life in a refugee camp might be better for people.

People go to these camps when fleeing conflict or war.

People have temporary shelter.

Children were going to school.

People were getting medical care

People who have left their homes because of being scared of war or persecution, can feel safe again. The camps provide shelter, some medical care and education.

Independent

1. Give two reasons why living in a refugee camp might be difficult for people?

2. What dangers might there be?

How do you think it would feel to live in one of these camps?

REMEMBER: Explain your answers with reference to the text.